Un team di esperti si riunirà per analizzare le criticità e le potenzialità di sviluppo di questa nuova filiera. Un appuntamento unico in Italia.

Dr. David J. Nisbet is a professor of psychology at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is also a member of the American Psychological Association and the Society for Experimental Social Psychology.

The floor plan shows a rectangular exhibition area with several booths and a central hall. The booths are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some having specific themes like beer, food, and technology. The central area is labeled HALL SUD. An entrance arrow points to the bottom right corner, labeled INGRESSO SUD.
